GP workload: Time For A Rethink Of The Generalist Model Of Care To Promote Retention

1 October 2015, BJGP

Much has been written in recent months about the ‘crisis’ in general practice; a crisis that has been linked to difficulties in recruiting to and retaining the workforce, changing working patterns, increasing care demands, and bureaucracy in the system of care. The debate has rippled through the press, been the subject of discussion at conferences and in the pages of journals, as well as prompting a number of reviews. While rarely out of the headlines or journals, it would seem that there is more ‘heat than light’ in identifying a way forward.

To read the full article click here: GP workload: Time For A Rethink Of The Generalist Model Of Care To Promote Retention

Related guidance, press and emails...

Local Workforce Issues – A Future Model?

Much has been written in recent months about the crisis in general practice due to difficulties in recruiting to and retaining the...
| General Practice debated in Parliament |
| GP practice told to pay back £41,000 in misclaimed rent reimbursements... |
| GP practices offer to run care homes and discharge services as NHS England's general practice overhaul begins... |
| GP Recruitment Crisis... |
| GP workload: Time For A Rethink Of The Generalist Model Of Care To Promote Retention |
| GPC opposes pooling practice funding with hospital or social care budgets... |
| GPs fight for patient care as treatment requests are denied... |
| GPs to offer 'step-down' beds, homecare and counselling as NHS England reveals details of radical new model for practices... |
| GPs told to submit reports on all staff for NHS workforce survey by May... |
| GPs under pressure as A&E waits worst for a decade |
| Hospital consultants warned after bouncing suspected cancer cases back to GPs... |
| Hospital prescribing costs rising four times faster than primary care |
| Is MPIG money moving in the right direction?... |
| It's a shame that vanguards are struggling as young GPs want to work here |

Latest News Articles

- Local Workforce Issues – A Future Model?
  - Nearly one in 10 doctors say patients have covertly recorded consultations
  - New voluntary contract will help general practice to thrive
  - New wave of GP practice closures across UK is 'deeply concerning
  - Newly qualified GPs share their thoughts...
  - NHS pledges £55m to make all GP referrals electronic by 2018
  - One in three GPs say medical indemnity fees have risen 20% in five years
  - Partners told to provide training for all new health care assistants from March...
  - Practice management support scheme seeks to keep expertise within the profession

PRESS RELEASE: The Care Quality
Commissions publications – Intelligent Monitoring of GP Practices

Private firms could take temporary control of practices at risk of closure...

Pulse Career Pathways: What is it like to be a portfolio GP?

Pulse Live 2014 Highlights...

Pulse Power 50 2015

Senior Doctors Condemn Proposal to Charge Patients to See GP

South West New Forest MCP Update, Issue 1

South West New Forest MCP Update, Issue 2

Struggling practices to be offered emergency support after Pulse campaign...

Support scheme extended for overworked Practice Manager...

Tackling common problems for new GPs

Transatlantic Exchange between the NHS and The Veterans Health Administration

Trick or treat? PM announces a new GP contract

Vanguard GPs open shared branch surgery to deliver seven-day access for 70,000 patients

Vanguard GPs to offer longer appointments and extended hours

Vanguard NHS trusts face Monitor probe over financial or governance problems

Why GPs Need Better Access To Diagnostic Cancer Scans...

Will the Better Care Fund benefit general practice?...

Worksheets for auditing patient demand

Download and bookmark...

PDF File

Add to my Learning Diary

About this page...

Updated on 28 August 2015

432 views
What we do

We represent GPs and practices across the counties of Dorset, Hampshire & the Isle of Wight and Wiltshire whilst also providing services to the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey. Find out more