The independent investigation into sexism and sexual harassment at the BMA.

Wessex LMCs notes the report commissioned for the BMA and published on 17th October 2019 by Daphne Romney QC relating to the independent investigation into sexism and sexual harassment at the BMA.

Wessex LMCs takes the content of this report seriously. To this end the Executive and members of the Secretariat have met to discuss and consider our response to the report's recommendations.

As a result of this meeting it has been agreed that the report will be on the agenda of every committee meeting, to note its publication and raise awareness. Responding to this report will be a priority for Wessex LMCs and requires careful consideration of any implications for LMCs.

The Secretariat will further review this report at their next meeting and will form a working party to review and implement the relevant recommendations.
