Minister to consider forcing GP trainees to stay in UK...

1 October 2014, GP Online

“ Wessex LMCs chief executive Dr Nigel Watson, who organised the survey, told GP that the high numbers of trainees planning to move abroad reflected deep concerns about taking on full-time general practice roles in the current environment.

'I think this is about UK graduates who spend time in general practice and say: "At this stage in my career I don't want to take on general practice full time".

'So they will go to Australia and come back when things are better.
